Applicant has considered several other alternative locations. First, it currently has operations in Maryland, Massachusetts and New Jersey and has considered consolidating all of its businesses into one of these other out of state locations. Second, Applicant has also considered new locations in the State of North Carolina as well as other new locations in Suffolk County, New York. Applicant has seriously considered the other locations, especially those that are out of state because of, among other things: (1) the strong local market demand for the millwork it manufactures and produces, (2) the cost of operating their facilities would be significantly cheaper outside of Nassau County and New York generally, and (3) there is significantly more real estate product for Applicant to consider to lease or own at the other out-of-state locations should they not choose one of their current out-of-state facilities.

Provide the information requested in Questions A through S above with respect to each such party by attachment at Schedule I.

Insert No. 3

A new, larger facility is necessary at this time in order for Applicant to expand its current business to meet both current and future market opportunities and client demand as well as to consolidate all of its businesses at one location. The expanded facility will allow Applicant to maintain competitive economies of scale. Further, a new, improved footprint will greatly enhance the Applicant's work flow and business productivity.

Insert No. 4

If the Applicant is not able to obtain financial assistance from the Agency, from a strictly business perspective, it will make more sense, in order to remain competitive in the market place, for the Applicant to either consolidate its business operations either at one of its current out-of-state locations or at a new out-of-state facility.
